

SARIGIM KING'S KIDS JERUSALEM VOLUNTEER APPLICATION

There are a few things you should take into consideration before applying to volunteer with Sarigim King's Kids Jerusalem. Please read carefully the following, and sign below if you understand and agree.

1. Sarigim King's Kids Jerusalem does not support the volunteers financially. However, we can help you find accommodation solutions for your volunteering time period.
2. Sarigim King's Kids Jerusalem does not offer medical insurance. This is the personal responsibility of each volunteer.
3. Our activities sometimes go beyond "regular hours". When we have our youth meetings or performances, our schedule might end at around 21:00- 22:00 and sometimes even later. This is not the everyday routine and most days finish earlier, but if you will come to volunteer for Sarigim, you should be prepared for flexible hours. In addition, we also have weekend camps a few times a year, which include overnight stays.
4. We expect from our volunteers to respect the time schedules of our activities and appear on time.
5. Our ongoing work and relationships with each other are based on Biblical values, as well as local cultural customs. We do not expect you to violate your principles and beliefs, but flexibility, respect and an open mind are essential for our successful co-laboring.
